Set in an economically devastated Pennsylvania steel town, American Rust is a story of the lost American dream resulting in desperation – as well as the acts of friendship, loyalty and love -that arises from its loss. From local bars to train yards to prison, as is the story of two young men bound to the town by family responsibility and the beauty around them, who dream of a future beyond factories and abandoned homes.

This is a DAZ program in cooperation with the Literaturhaus Stuttgart and the Tropen Verlag.
