Conversation Evening with Ian Stahl

This evening we will discuss Germany and the USA's mutual effects on each other in the area of music and how the musical world changed before, during and after World War II. This will include the emigration of notable European composers such as Arnold Schoenberg to the USA and America's attempts to shape postwar German culture through music.

This program is free of cost.

This program is in support of American Days 2016.
