Conversation Evening with Ian Stahl

This evening we will discuss Germany and the USA's mutual effects on each other in the area of music and how the musical world changed before, during and after World War II. This will include the emigration of notable European composers such as Arnold Schoenberg to the USA and America's attempts to shape postwar German culture through music. This program is free of cost. No reservation or RSVP needed. Just show up and enjoy the evening.

This program is in support of American Days 2016.

Cogwheel tram stop

Pfaffenweg

Evening Walk with Rainer

I would like to invite you for a walk to explore some less known places of Stuttgart. We will meet at the cogwheel tram stop „Pfaffenweg“ at 18:00h on Monday, May 30, 2016. I would suggest you take the cogwheel tram from Marienplatz. The cogwheel tram will leave Marienplatz at 18:00h and will arrive at Pfaffenweg at 18:01h. Together we will walk to Wernhalde and look for some redwoods in the park. Further we will go to the viewing platform Schillereiche and think of Friedrich Schiller our German poet. From there we will continue our walk to the Teehaus in Weissenburgpark where we can enjoy a wonderful view of the city. This is also the place where we will stop for a rest and have some food. Our walk will end here.

Please confirm your coming to rmkunkel@t-online.de ,

Tel. 0160-8446228 until May 25. Hope for good weather.
