TUESDAY October 30 19:15 h	Guided Tour Underground Air-Raid Shelter (Stuttgart-Feuerbach) In the 1920s, the German government recognized the danger of air-raids against cities and started (some years later) the construction of air-raid shelters. The lessons learned during the Second World War were that the inhabitants needed better protection against air-raids. During the Cold War, the German government built around 68,000 air-raid shelters for the citizens of Stuttgart. The association Schutzbauten Stuttgart e.V. will introduce us to the history of the underground air-raid shelters in Stuttgart. We will visit one underground air-raid shelter in Stuttgart-Feuerbach. Meeting point will be at 19:15h at the U-Bahn-Station, Bahnhof Feuerbach. Admission: non-members 5€ / members free (the guided tour is in German). Registration deadline: 29 October 2007 by e-mail to Peter.Walter@metclub.de, mobile 0173 800 18 28

MONDAY November 26 19:30 h	No program of the Metropolitan Club. We recommend the following DAZ program: Literaturverfilmung: The Portrait of a Lady von Henry James Vortrag /Diskussion mit Dr. Stefan Winter Die filmische Adaption einer literarischen Vorlage kann nur sehr entfernt den Text übernehmen. Die Konzentration auf dramatische Höhepunkte hin, die manchmal einfache Herausarbeitung der Hauptfiguren auf wenige Charakterzüge und eine oft genauere Darstellung im szenographischen Bereich (Bühnenbild, Natur, Kostüme) lassen den Film durchaus als eigenständiges Kunstwerk bestehen. Ein Beharren auf die exakte Umsetzung vom Buchstaben zur Leinwand ist dementsprechend illusorisch. Allerdings muss sich die Frage auch stellen lassen, ob nicht mit dem Genuss der Kinoversion die Lektüre vermieden wird. – In unserer neuen Reihe wird Dr. Stefan Winter von der Filmhochschule Potsdam-Babelsberg jeden Monat eine Literaturverfilmung diskutieren. Wir beginnen diese Reihe mit der Verfilmung von Henry James' Meisterwerk „The Portrait of a Lady“. Der Film wird am Dienstag, 27. November in der Originalfassung gezeigt. Ort: Deutsch-Amerikanisches-Zentrum (DAZ), Charlottenplatz 17, Stuttgart (see next page for location)

TUESDAY November 27 19:00 h	No program of the Metropolitan Club. We recommend the following DAZ program: FILMWORKSHOP: The Portrait of a Lady (1996, OV, 142 min.) Directed by Jane Campion, the great and evident artistry shapes this film version of the Henry James novel The Portrait of a Lady, starring Nicole Kidman as Isabel Archer and a devilishly evil John Malkovich as Gilbert Osmond. For the bilingual amongst you: don't miss Dr. Winter's lecture in German on this film adaptation on November 26! Take place at Deutsch-Amerikanisches-Zentrum (DAZ), Charlottenstr. 17, Stuttgart (see below for location)

Sikkim - The Switzerland of the Himalayas (December 11, 19:30 h @ DAZ conference room)

In 1975 Sikkim became officially the 22nd state of the Indian union after a referendum of the Sikkimese people. Before joining the Indian state Sikkim was a kingdom with domestic autonomy, but India was in charge of foreign affairs. Sikkim has a strong economic growth due to tourism and hydro power. Therefore Sikkim is striving to become the 'Switzerland of the Himalayan'. Matthias saw these words on a billboard during his trip to Sikkim in April. He will show you some slides showing the life of the Sikkimese people, its nature and buddhistic monasteries. The third highest mountain on earth, which is called Kanchenjunga, can be seen from many places in Sikkim. To get a view of this giant mountain is not so easy as it appears. Matthias also spend some days in the region of Darjeeling which is very famous for its tea gardens. You will see how Darjeeling tea is produced.

Tschengla (Austria) week-end – December 21-23 (week-end)

Join us for a week-end in the Vorarlberg region – hopefully with lots of snow ! We will leave Stuttgart on Friday afternoon/evening for 1.5 days of skiing, sledging and snow hiking. You may also try snow shoes. In the evening we will cook together and enjoy a big meal.

We stay at "Schwabenhäuser" – a blockhouse at 1200m elevation, 5min walk from ski-lift with self-catering facilities. Please bring your own bed sheets and some food for yourself and some to share for the big Saturday dinner. Drinks are provided.

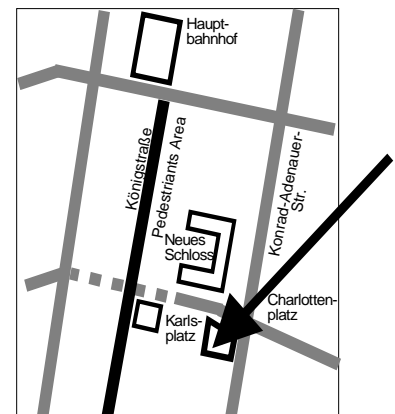

Price for accommodation: 16€ per night. This year we will travel with our own cars to Tschengla. Götz will organize car-pooling. Please register a.s.a.p. with Götz Stelzenmüller by sending him an e-mail.
